Subject: Business Cooperation

Mediterranean Trade Station, a reliable, modern and flexible company with a dynamic presence in the field of wholesale trade of agricultural/agri-food products (mainly tomatoes, cucumbers, aubergines and peppers) based in Ierapetra, Crete, Greece, would like to inform you that it is able to meet your needs thus providing your clients with the exact products they demand.

Our company has selected, with strict criteria, reliable and reputable suppliers from Crete and Greece whose products it trades, always taking care of their proper and safe distribution and offering high quality products covering all the needs of our customers.

Crete is an island with a wide range of quality produce and a substantial yearly income based on their export and thousands of satisfied customers. Mediterranean Trade Station aims to uplift this yearly income by means of liaison with companies who wish to import these products and contribute to the satisfaction their customers with quality solutions and products in the EU and Mediterranean countries.

Based on the above, please inform us about your intention to cooperate as well as about the products you are interested in, their packaging and quantity. We remain at your disposal for any additional information or clarification and we look forward to a prosperous future cooperation with you.

Yours sincerely,

Maria Kafetzaki
